

"Brantwood saved my life. I feel like God blessed me by placing me here."

Give a gift this holiday season to

Brantwood Children's Home

Friends,

We are preparing for 2016 with great anticipation. We know that 2015 has been such a good year for us. We move steadfast towards the future knowing that there is a plan for Brantwood. And that plan is to continue touching lives with the hope of Christ, to continue changing hearts, and to continue saving lives in the process.

It does my heart good to know that you have supported our children in various ways the past couple years; be it volunteering your time directly to our children, volunteering your services to our home for the advancement of our mission, or giving financial support. For all the many blessings that you bestowed upon our children, we hope it was returned to you tenfold.

We're together in a powerful endeavor

Because of you and your prayers, Brantwood has experienced some amazing things in the past few months and we've tried to keep you informed on those wonderful activities. As we continue to create opportunities for learning and development, we also keep in mind the reasons our children are under our care in the first place.

Our goal is to foster hope in those who have lost hope along the way. It is our job to give a gift to those we can as we have been gifted ourselves. As we set forth in defending the lives of children with love and conviction, we ask that you give the gift of hope this holiday season; the hope that the childhood they once knew is a distant memory and that memories of joy and safety abound. We want to demonstrate to our children that we are in this together, together in a powerful endeavor.

Launching Brantwood into the New Year

At the year-end, your special gift will give us a significant boost as we close out the year and set our course for 2016.

Let's foster fear into hope this holiday season. Your gift to our home will enable us to do just that. Thank you.

Sincerely,

"I love that everyone at Brantwood is like my family. They love me and care for me and I love them."

Tuesday, December 1

From fundraising to volunteering to pro bono services, #GivingTuesday is a great way to engage your community to become a part of a larger worldwide movement that promotes generosity.
